Re: USA v. Sheba Edwards
07CR313 (LAP)

Dear Judge Preska,

Ms. Edwards has requested me to petition the Court for permission to travel to San Juan, Puerto Rico on Oct. 18, 2007 and connect to St. Thomas, Virgin Islands where she will return on Oct. 21, 2007. Her daughter, Lorianne Georges is to be married during that time period.

Ms. Edwards will be staying at the Wyndham Sugar Bay Hotel (340-774-8500) and I have attached her travel itinerary herewith.

Ms. Edwards had advised her Pre-Trial supervisor, Ms. Santana about her request and there was no objection thereto, deferring to the Court for approval. Similarly, AUSA William Harrington also had no objection in view of Pre-Trial's position.

A previous application did not specify that St. Thomas was part of the travel plans although the itinerary submitted so indicated. Therefore, I respectfully request that approval be granted for Ms. Edwards to travel consistent with the travel plans submitted herein and that the Pre-Trial services release her passport for use for as indicated.

Yours Truly,

William A. Sandback

The travel plan outlined in Mr. Sandback's letter of October 12 are approved. SO ORDERED.
